There is a wonderful man down in Ozark county, Mo. He is seventy-six years old and is well and hearty and bids fair to live many years yet and do much for good for his country. He has had three wives and by the first wife he had eight children, by the second wife eleven children, and by his third wife eleven more children, in all thirty children. Twenty-seven of the children are still living and most of them are living in Ozark county. This wonderful man is a Pennsylvania German by the name of Strohl. His youngest child is now only three years old. Nineteen of his children are married, and their families average eight children. One of them has seventeen children. Among the children of Mr. Joel Strohl, who is one of the old gentlemen's children by his first wife, there are two pairs of twins.

A clergyman was recently annoyed by people talking and giggling. He paused, looked at the disturbers, and said: "I am always sorry to reprove those who misbehave, for this reason: Some years since, as I was preaching, a young man, who sat before me was constantly laughing, talking and making uncouth grimaces. I paused and administered a severe rebuke. After the close of the service a gentleman said to me: 'Sir, you have made a great mistake; that man was an idiot.' Since then I have always been afraid to reprove those who misbehave themselves in chapel, lest I should repeat that mistake and reprove another idiot." During the rest of the service there was good order.

The committee on Ways and Means have finally disposed of the income tax question, by agreeing to report a bill exempting all incomes up to $2,000, levying a tax of 2 per cent. from that amount to $5,000, 3 per cent. thence to $10,000, and 4 per cent. for all incomes in excess of that amount. In the computation of incomes, rents and all taxes are exempted.

A book agent, the other day, talked half an hour to induce a lady to buy a book. Then she handed him a slip of paper on which was written: "I'm deaf and dumb."

A correspondent of the Oil City Derrick, writing from Italy, says that Grant is growing gray. Let him see Naples and dye.—Utica Observer.

The editor of the Oil City Derrick announces his willingness to fill a vacancy. Now charity begins at home. Why doesn't he fill the one under his hat?—Buffalo Express.

A clergyman recently made the following assertion: "A young woman died in the neighborhood, on yesterday, while I was preaching in a leasely state of intoxication."

Alexander Stephens wheels about Washington in a sick chair and feebly warbles that quaint old tune, "This is the way I long have sate."—St. Louis Journal.

A Chicago clergyman started his flock a few Sunday evenings ago by telling them "hell is not half so full of men and women as men and women are full of hell."

The thin, pious man, who is continually groaning over the wickedness of this world, is more troubled with dyspepsia than blessed with religion.

The Pacific railroad bill has been favorably reported to the senate. There seems to be no doubt of its passage by the senate.

A warm controversy is going on in St. Louis in regard to the teaching of German in the public schools.

Household Receipts.

Fricassee of Chicken—Cut the chicken in small pieces, just cover with water, season highly, add a few small pieces of pork; if a fat chicken, not a very large piece of butter; add a few potatoes cut in half; before taking from the fire remove the lid and dredge in a little flour.

Hominy Cakes—To 1-2 pint of hominy add 2 eggs, 3 ounces of flour, 1 ounce of butter, melted in 1-2 pint of milk; the whites of the eggs must be beaten separately, and stirred in lightly just before baking. To be baked on the griddle. Should the hominy be cold and stiff rub it thru the colander.

Oyster Stuffing—Oysters are not chopped when mixed with dressing for turkey. Prepare some bread crumbs, and mix plenty of butter with them; add the oysters (1 quart) and moisten the dressing with the oyster-liquor. If only an "oyster flavor" is desired, the dressing is made mostly of bread, and half a dozen oysters are chopped or minced to add to the flavor.

Raised Biscuit—Make a sponge of about a pint of milk or water, with a small piece of yeast-cake, or a penny's worth of baker's yeast at night; in the morning knead with a pint of milk, warmed, and 1-2 cupful butter and lard; knead very soft; let stand until light, then knead again; when light roll out, cut with a small glass; let stand for one hour in the pans; bake quickly.

Scotch Fancy Cakes—Rub 1-2 pound butter into a pound and a half of flour; break 4 eggs into 3-4 pound sugar, and whisk them five minutes; make a print with the butter and flour; pour in the eggs and sugar, and add 1-2 gill of cream; mix all into a dough; cut into pieces about 2 inches across, and an eighth of an inch thick; cover the tin with buttered paper, lay the cakes on and bake.

To Soften Leather—To restore the softness and pliancy of leather, which has become hard by having been wet, apply neat's-foot oil and rub it in. Castor-oil is a good substitute for neat's-foot oil for softening leather belts, boots and harness. The best oil for harness is one quart neat's-foot oil, four ounces beef tallow, and three tablespoonfuls of lampblack, adding four ounces beeswax for use in summer weather.

A lad calling himself Geo. Turpin, who had been living with Thomas Hughes in the lower end of this county for a year or more, was taken under aquisition of the governor of Arkansas, on last Wednesday, and hurried off to that state to answer for the killing of a man there five years ago. He was about eighteen years of age, and seemed to make friends where he had lived in this state. He had told his employer a year ago that he was a fugitive from justice on account of having killed a man in Arkansas. Turpin had lived with A. Harnet and James Keith, near Flint Hill, before coming to Mr. Hughes. The officer's account differs from that given by Turpin. According to the former the accused was hired to kill his victim by four men who are now in limbo for the same affair. According to his statement the killing was for the purpose of robbery, as the murderers got $18,000 from the victim.—Warrenton Banner.

The business men of the Pacific slope are said to be almost unanimously opposed to the proposed abrogation of the trade dollar, which they claim has obtained a firm footing in China and created a demand which cannot otherwise be filled. They are preferred by the Chinese to the Mexican dollar, and a suspension of their coinage would be to throw away the business and our prestige as a silver-producing country.

Utica Republican: "What has become of the great political parties of the United States?" The Democratic party is at home, quietly attending to its own business. A part of the Republican party has retired to weep over its lost opportunities to steal. The rest of it is in the penitentiary.—Courier Journal.
